

Principles of Evangelism

Lesson 2: How the Early Church Reached the World & How to Lead Someone to Jesus

1. How the early church did not do it.

- They did not use mass meetings on a regular basis (exception of when Philip went to Samaria).
- They did not build big buildings.
- _____

2. How the early church did evangelize all the known world.

Acts 2:46, 47

- They continued in one accord. There was unity between them.
- They were in the temple. _____
- They were breaking bread from house to house. They fellowshiped together.
- They had singleness of heart. They had one purpose – one goal.
- _____
- They had favor with all the people.
- _____

Acts 4:31-33

- _____

- They were filled with the Holy Spirit.
- _____
- Signs and wonders were a normal part of the early church.

At first, the Book of Acts tells us that God “added” to the church. Later in the Book of Acts, the word “multiplied” is used.

Acts 5:12

Acts 6:1

Acts 6:1-7

When believers began working in their ministries and callings the church multiplied.

3. Why personal soul winning is an excellent and effective method for seeing people saved.

- _____
- It can bring revival to a church.
- The spirit of revival can be sustained.
- _____
- Personal evangelism helps Christians to grow and mature.
- _____
